Chapter 1 by Cameron Stonecipher

It was the same morning as always I get up to turn off my alarm clock look outside same weather gloomy day in Nahae. Got dressed threw some darts at my dartboard. A bull's eye yeah Thought sarcastically. I ran down the stairs I noticed that there was no sound of breakfast being made. So I went over to the board wear me and my mom put announcements if the other was sleeping. The note says that she was out at work. Yes I thought I ran back upstairs and surrounded myself with my blanket. I closed my eyes and my room turned in a huge area that was surrounded by Giant crystals.inside the circle was a little bustling town.

Chapter 2 by Cameron Stonecipher

I materialized into the town's square. The people of the town were doing what they usually do the baker baking bread and the blacksmith hitting his hammer on a chunk of metal. As I walked they looked up and said "good Morning Ethan" As I walked by on my way to the castle I saw more and more Servants running by. As I approached and opened the giant Gold engraved doors. The Castle was more chaotic than usual. My eyes were spinning trying to follow all of the Servants. until I heard a loud voice. I look to see wear the voice was coming from I saw a man wearing dark blue noble robes lined with gold. "good morning Count Walker" he only glanced at waved. "hello Mrs. Walker" I shouted over the sound of sword clashing together. I continue to walk toward the center of the courtyard I could only see one giant of a man. Sampson was wearing Snow white armor. he turned around. Sampson had Brown hair and Green eyes. "Ethan" he said nodding. As Sampson walked by I whispered "You Artless Dewberry" He instantly spun around "what did you say little man." he said shouting at me. "you heard me" I said confidently staring up at him. "you boys need to calm down and to stop fighting with each other" A female voice said. I turn around to see lady Sanya. She had Pink hair and red eyes. She was wearing a pink combat skirt that had an armor chest piece and gauntlets.
